- (1) County Court and Probate Court Judges receive salaries at the same rate as District Judges, $140,000. In addition, County Court Judges 1 and 2 receive benefits in the form of County salary payments to match State contributions for insurance to District Judges, equaling $1,026 each. The employee Health Insurance premium of $1,800 annually is paid for by the County for the County Court 1, 2, 3, and Probate Judges to further bring salaries in line with total compensation, considering benefit payments, to District Judges. County Court Judge 1 will reach eligibility and will receive longevity compensation equal to that received by a District Judge on June 1.
- (2) Districts Court Judges can receive up to a maximum salary match from the county of $15,000 per statute.
- (3) These Judge's receive an additional $5,000 supplement for acting as Administrative Judge within their court system per statute.
- (4) The Galveston County Sheriff is assigned a County Sheriff's vehicle for transportation. No allowance is given.
- (5) No new salary increase has been given in FY 2010. The FY 2009 budget implemented a 5.5% salary increase in January of 2009. As a result, the FY 2009 Salary reflected 3 months at a lower rate and 9 months at a higher rate. The FY 2010 reflects a full 12 months at the higher rate.
- (6) The Communication Allowance, previously paid at $1,200 per year, was added to the total salary for these positions in FY 2009.
- (7) These District Court judges are eligible for additional longevity pay based upon years of service (Government Code 659.0445).
