OPEN RECORDS COMPLAINT CHECKLIST

1. Contact the Office of the Attorney General Open Government Hotline at (877-673-6839). This is a toll free number and they will attempt to resolve your complaint. You may go to their website for additional assistance at www.oag.state.tx.us.
2. If the Attorney General's Office is unable to resolve your complaint and you wish to have this office open a criminal complaint, please provide this office with all of the necessary documentation.
3. Texas Law provides a criminal penalty for:
An officer for public information, or the officer's agent, commits an offense if, with criminal negligence, the officer or the officer's agent fails or refuses to give access to, or to permit or provide copying of, public information to a requestor as provided by this chapter. (See Section 552.353(a) of the Government Code).
4. It is a defense to the prosecution that the governmental body did a timely request for a decision to the Attorney General's Office under section 552.301 of the Government Code.
5. If the governmental body does not request an attorney general decision timely, the presumption is that the information is public (see section 552.302 of the Government Code).

6. The Attorney General's Office or a requestor may compel a governmental body to make information available if they refuse to do so without a legal exception. This would require a civil law suit to be filed.
7. If you have:
- A) Made a written request to a governmental body that was clear and not over-broad, and
 - B) Allowed the governmental body a reasonable amount of time to produce the information, but not delay, and
 - C) Allowed for the Attorney General to provide the governmental body with a decision if timely requested, and
 - D) Contacted the Attorney General's Office and have been told that there is no exception to disclosure, and
 - E) Provide our office with:
 - 1) A completed "checklist for criminal complaint" with all relevant information, and
 - 2) A copy of your dated written request to the governmental body, and
 - 3) A copy of any and all communications with the Attorney General's Office, and
