GALVESTON COUNTY TOWN HALL MEETING IN LEAGUE CITY

County Judge Mark Henry to discuss Economic Development, Hurricane Season and More

June 9, 2014

GALVESTON, TX – County Judge Mark Henry will be kicking off a series of town hall meetings throughout Galveston County over the next several months to update citizens about projects he and Commissioners' Court are currently working on. Subjects to be included in the meetings will feature items such as the upcoming economic development strategic planning, preparing for hurricane season and tips for getting rid of hazardous household materials.

The first town hall meeting is scheduled for next Tuesday, June 17th from 6-7PM at the League City Civic Center Ballroom with Mayor Tim Paulissen and Commissioner Ken Clark. This is a great opportunity for members of the public to come out and talk to their local public officials about the issues that matter to them most.

WHEN:

Tuesday, June 17th
6 – 7PM

WHERE:

League City Civic Center Ballroom
400 West Walker
League City, TX 77573
