PRO SE DIVORCE PROVE-UP

May it please the Court:

My name is _____.

I am presently married to _____.

Prior to filing for divorce, either myself or my spouse have been a domiciliary of Texas for the preceding six-month period and a resident of this county for the preceding 90-day period.

I was married to my spouse on ___/___/___, and we ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about ___/___/___.

My marriage has become insupportable because of a discord or conflict of personalities that destroys the legitimate ends of the marriage relationship.

There is no reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

There were ___ children born or adopted into this marriage that are still under the age of 18 and/or who still require support.

We are/are not expecting a child at this time.

- There are/are not any court-ordered conservatorships, guardianships or other court-ordered relationships affecting these children.
- The children do/do not own any property.
- My spouse and I are presenting a proposed final parenting plan to the court that is contained in our proposed final decree of divorce.
- My spouse and I think that the proposed parenting plan is in the best interest of our children and ask the Court to approve our proposed parenting plan.

(Continue on other side)

My spouse and I have entered into an agreement concerning the division of our community property and debts. We think that the agreement is fair and equitable to both of us.

I am tendering to the Court a document entitled Agreed Decree of Divorce, which bears the signatures of both myself and my spouse.

I (or my spouse) am asking for a name change. The request for a name change is not to avoid creditors or criminal prosecution.

I am asking the Court to grant a divorce and approve all the agreements entered into.

That's all I have, Your Honor.
