Galveston County, Texas Request for Applications for Main and Participating Bank Depositories for the Deposit of Funds Belonging To Galveston County and Other Governmental Entities

Pursuant to the provisions of Texas Local Government Code 116.022 and 117.022, notice is hereby given that the Galveston County Commissioners' Court is seeking applications for a Main and for Participating Bank Depositories for the following funds:

- All funds belonging to the County of Galveston
- Trust funds and Court Registry Funds in possession of the County Clerk of Galveston County
- Accounts utilized by the Galveston County Health District
- Special Funds deposited in the County Treasury and utilized by its Community Supervision and Corrections Department (Adult Probation)
- Accounts utilized by the Galveston County Emergency Communication District
- Accounts, including overnight depositories, utilized by other elected and appointed Galveston County officials

Sealed applications in sets of three (3) originals marked on the outside "Application for County Depository Funds" will be received until close of business (5:00p.m.) on April 24, 2015 at the Office of the County Treasurer located at the Galveston County Courthouse, 722 Moody Avenue, 4th floor, Galveston, Texas 77550. All applications will be opened by the Commissioners' Court at its regularly scheduled meeting held at 1:30 p.m. on May 12, 2015 at the Galveston County Courthouse 722 Moody Avenue, 1st floor Galveston, Texas 77550 or as soon thereafter as may be determined necessary by the Court.

Applicants should be State and National Bank preferably domiciled in Galveston County, Texas that have the ability to provide safekeeping depositories for all funds and accounts listed above in the form of demand account banking.

Each Applicant must utilize the County's Official Proposal Form and specify the interest it will pay on Demand Deposits and/or Time Deposits. Each Applicant must also provide through a contract with another bank, if necessary, adequate facilities located in the County seat, which is Galveston, Texas for daily banking transactions. In addition, each Applicant who has Demand Deposit Account with the will, upon request of the County Treasurer, is required to furnish daily statements on at least the County's largest Demand Accounts together with front and back images of cancelled checks guaranteeing each endorsement that can be imported individually into the County's financial system. Applicants seeking Time Deposit Accounts only will need only have a branch presence within the County in order to be considered.

The Term of each Depository Contract will be for a period of four (4) years, beginning October 1, 2015 and expiring September 30, 2019. In addition, if necessary, each Depository Contract may be extended by Galveston County up to an additional sixty (60) days to enable the County Treasurer to have ample time to close out accounts and to transfer funds to successor County Depositories.

Each Depository Contract shall allow Galveston County to establish, on the basis of negotiations with the Bank that will take effect during the final two years of the four-year contract, new interest rates and financial terms of the Depository Contract including the option to switch back and forth from fixed to variable interest rates. But, any new financial terms may not increase service cost to Galveston County by more than 10%.

Each Depository Contract will require the Bank to pledge, as collateral, securities acceptable to and approved by the Commissioners' Court of Galveston County that cumulatively have a market value amount sufficient to equal 110% of all funds deposited with the bank by Galveston County, its County Clerk, its District Clerk, its Community Supervision and Corrections Department (Adult Probation), all other elected and appointed Galveston County officials, the Galveston County Emergency Communication District and the Galveston County Health District. In addition, each Bank must maintain FDIC insurance and comply with the terms and provisions of Government Code Chapter 2256 (Public Funds Investment Act), Chapter 2257 (Public Fund Collateral Act) as well as Local Government Code Chapters 116 (Depositories for County Public Funds) and 117 (Depositories for Certain Trust Funds and Court Registry Funds) as they relate to such securities. Also all such securities shall be placed in a second bank or with the Federal Reserve Bank safekeeping, providing the County of Galveston with safekeeping receipts. Monthly reports on all collateral securities will be made to the County Treasurer and shall include the par value and market value of each. Requests for substitution of collateral securities shall be made, in writing, to the County Treasurer's Office. Such requested are similarly subject to the approval of Commissioners' Court.

In addition to executing a County Depository Contract, each Applicant may be required to execute the following Agreements with terms and conditions acceptable to Galveston County:

- Custodial Agreement for County Owned Securities
- Investment Clearing Agreement
- Custodial Agreement for Pledged Securities (Federal Reserve Bank)
- Lock Box Agreement

Each Applicant must state the amount of the bank's paid-up capital stock and permanent surplus and the application must be accompanied by:

- A statement showing the financial condition of the Bank on the date of the application
- A certified or cashier's check for one-half of Galveston County's $97,054,213.74 revenue for the preceding year (rounded to nearest thousand) i.e. $500,000.00
- A description of all banking services they are willing to provide and the charges for such services, if any, exist. Examples include but are not limited to the printing of checks, deposit tickets, returned checks, etc.

Awards to successful Applicants will be made by the Galveston County Commissioners' Court at its regularly scheduled meeting held at May 26, 2015 or as soon thereafter as may be determined necessary by the Court.

The Galveston County Commissioners' Court shall have the rights to accept such Application it determines offers the most favorable terms and conditions for handling of all funds. In addition, the Commissioners' Court shall have the right to reject any and all Applications.

Official Proposal Forms are available through the County Treasurer's Office located at the Galveston County Courthouse, 722 Moody Avenue-4th Floor, Galveston, TX 77550 (Telephone 409-770-5395) (Email: galvestoncountytreasurer@co.galveston.tx.us )
